

Camden Youth Awards 2025

Information Pack

Recognising potential, celebrating achievement

The Camden Youth Awards is an opportunity to bring the community together to recognise and celebrate young people in Camden, as well as practitioners and projects that support them. Please read the information carefully before submitting your nomination.

Individual awards for young people

Do you know a young person who has achieved something that deserves recognition? Will their story inspire and encourage others? We want your nomination. Nominations can come from young people, professionals, parents, guardians, carers and local residents.

Entry criteria:

Nominees must:

- be aged 13 to 19 (up to 25 for young people with learning difficulties or disabilities)
- live, work or study in Camden or attend a Camden youth project or service.

Nominations must outline:

- their level of commitment, dedication and enthusiasm towards making a change or improvement to their school, youth centre, community and / or their own life and other young people's / local residents' lives
- how significant or worthwhile their contribution or progress was
- the level of personal skill, attributes and strength of character demonstrated
- how inspiring or moving their story is

Award categories:

1. Personal Journey – do you know a young person who has shown determination and strength of character in overcoming a particularly difficult year or faced challenging circumstances and shown resilience? Nominate them for this award so we can celebrate their achievements.
2. Young Volunteer – can you nominate a young person who has spent time working for the benefit of other residents in Camden? This could be supporting vulnerable members of the community, being proactive in community initiatives, or fundraising for charities. Help us congratulate their amazing work by nominating them for this award.
3. Positive Impact Award - This person will have undertaken and achieved an activity/project which has had a positive impact through a youth club or after school programme. Maybe they campaigned for a girl's group or set up an after-school club to support students. Please explain what they have achieved and what impact this has had.

Staff awards

We also want to celebrate the hard work and dedication of our practitioners who work with young people. Do you know a staff member who deserves recognition for their passion and commitment, and who inspires others? Nominations can come from young people, professionals, parents, guardians, carers and local residents.

Entry criteria:

Nominees must:

- be aged 19+
- Work within a Camden youth provision (either voluntary sector or council)

Nominations must outline:

- their level of commitment, dedication and enthusiasm towards making a change or improvement to their youth provision and young people's / local residents' lives
- how significant or worthwhile their contribution or progress was
- how inspiring or moving their story is

Award categories:

1. Practitioner Award (Camden Integrated Youth Support Service) - do you know someone in Camden who went above and beyond to support young people this year? What piece of work especially showed their commitment and engagement to supporting young people, and what was the outcome? Please nominate and let us know.
2. Practitioner Award (Voluntary Sector) – do you know of someone in the voluntary sector who has shown commitment and dedication to working with young people, who consistently shows enthusiasm and support, encouragement and innovation? Who has made a difference to the lives of young people and is an example to others? If so, we would love to hear about them, please send us your nomination.

Best voluntary sector project award

Do you know of a project or organisation that goes above and beyond to support young people in Camden, who offers a dedicated service to improving the lives of young people, who uses creative and innovative methods to achieve positive outcomes and who provides a supportive and caring environment for young people to flourish? If there's a special project that comes to mind, please nominate and let us know. It can be based on a specific piece of work this project has done and can be shown through the stories of young people who attend and have been impacted by their work.

Entry criteria:

To be eligible, projects must:

- be delivered in Camden for young people aged 13 to 19 (up to 25 for young people with learning difficulties or disabilities)

- and be delivered in a youth work or group work setting.

The main selection criteria will be:

- the level of innovation and engagement of young people
- the level of young people's involvement in designing and leading the project
- the outcomes that have been achieved and evidence for this

What do you need to do?

Please share this information with colleagues, young people and Camden residents who can nominate by completing the online nomination form (weblink and QR code below):
